

Key Supplement
MD English Grade 5, Part I Grade Level Test

- 8. 1 point
Students should acknowledge the fact the speaker of the poem uses the personal pronouns “I” and “me.”
- 11. 3 points
Students should be able to state that there is a conflict between the logging businesses in Canada and the United States and the Native Canadians over who has the right to cut down the trees in the forest.
- 17. 3 points
The author is biased. The author blames the Native Canadians for the conflict and supports the Canadian government and logging companies. To support his or her position, the author also leans heavily on the loss of jobs and money if the Native Canadians are allowed to cut down the trees at will.
- 25. 1 point
Reforestation is the replanting of trees to restore the forest.
